Away A'Wee'Walk

IRISH WALKING TOURS

Cead Mile Failte

(An Irish expression meaning
One Hundred Thousand Welcomes)

My name is Eimear Flanagan.

I own and run 'Away A Wee Walk.'

It is a dedicated walking tours company based in my native Ireland.

I have the best job in the world! I help people like you to create and experience a wholly authentic, soul-renewing vacation themed around magnificent hikes in the Irish landscape.

What you are about to review has been designed exclusively by me, for you and is not available anywhere online.

Past visitors have told me they will cherish their experience for the rest of their lives.

2020 will be my eighth season in business.

WELCOME

Something to Celebrate and Appreciate!

My name is Cheryl Millett. I am the Founder of the 'Forest Hill Walk Club' a local walking club in Toronto and I appreciate walking for fitness.

The walk is every Sunday with no missing a beat, all year round through the local ravines and neighbourhoods followed by some breathing exercises and stretching.

The Forest Hill Walk Club's 10th anniversary was an adventure in Ireland with daily walking (June 2018.) Time to venture there in again in 2020.

All are welcome to join on this Ireland hiking holiday...members, members' family and friends, others who just love adventure, history, walking, and travel.

Insurance

1. You must have your own personal travel insurance to cover your own inability to attend or for general insurance in Ireland regarding loss of personal belongings, etc.
2. Away A Wee Walk carries Public Liability Insurance which will cover you in the event of purposeful or accidental negligence on my part.
3. All monies for the trip are held in a Travel Trust Fund and are only spent on direct costs for the trip until the completion of the trip.
4. Away A Wee Walk has a contingency guide in place who will stand in and deliver the trip in the event of Eimear Flanagan being unable to attend for whatever reason.

Advice on gear.

Irish weather is variable. It is extraordinarily temperamental. It can easily be raining in the morning and brighten up to be a beautiful day and then get showery again later in the day.

As accustomed walkers you will know how to dress in layers for any weather conditions.

Many locations in Ireland can sometimes be muddy underfoot.

I strongly recommend both good hiking boots and light rain gear. Packing list provided.

Setting the scene.

From watching the movie 'The Quiet Man' to reading 'How the Irish Saved Civilisation' or anyone of the abundant books on Ireland, you may wish to prepare for your trip by brushing up on the story of Ireland.

Price comparison.

Careful. It will be very tempting to take the coach element of this trip and the number of days and to try to find it online. You won't!

Compare apples with apples at least. If you want a good place to start for comparison try a company like Mountain Kingdoms. Like 'Away A Wee Walk' they don't go for eye watering prices in an effort to attract a mass market. Most online coach tours are in 50 seater coaches full to capacity, guided by employed tour directors. Most of them do not include guided hikes and there is a lot of time on the coach.

This tour, your tour, is for 16 people in a 24 seater luxury coach, designed and delivered by the same person who owns the walking company. My passion for Ireland and commitment to your tour is unsurpassable.
